

To whom it may concern:

I am writing in support of Indiana's do not call list law. I do not want it changed in anyway. I am very concerned that banks and others want this law changed. As far as I am concerned the US Mail works very well for putting out there information. I am ademanet that the Federal Goverment and its agencies stay the hell out of the matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas P. Kessens